NRA Basics of Pistol Shooting Course - Phase 2 Sponsored by the Portage Lake Sportsmen's Club

This NRA course, the Basics of Pistol Shooting, is being presented in the NRA's new "blended learning" format. Phase 1 of the course is offered on-line and must be completed before you can register for Phase 2, the hands-on shooting skills portion of the course. Phase 2 will begin on July 20th at 6:30. We will meet for 4 consecutive weeks, two hours per session, at the Portage Lake Sportsmen Club grounds: 18854 Chassell-Painedale Rd, Chassell, MI, 49916.

You can also find us on our webpage at: <http://www.portagelakeclub.org/home.html>

This comprehensive course will cover firearm safety; safe storage of handguns; types, parts, and function of revolvers and semi-automatic pistols; proper shooting technique using common shooting positions; marksmanship; handgun selection; cleaning and maintaining your handgun; and holsters. The course fee includes the use of one of our pistols for instruction and qualification, and up to 200 rounds of ammo. You also bring and use your own pistol if you prefer for all or part of the course.
